

Our Consultation Room

The viewpoints, opinions and information presented by our Consultants, do not necessarily reflect those of the management, staff, or ownership of Pilgrim's Way Community Bookstore. These presentations are made available to the community as a forum for thoughtful, informative and creative ideas or examples for consideration in a world that allows diversity and different points-of-view.

To maximize your consultation, please avoid wearing strong scents, turn off your cell phones to reduce distraction for yourself or the Consultant and feel free to take notes or record your session.

Pilgrim's Way reserves the right to refuse service to any person, for any reason.
